Report on “From Vision to Growth – A Leadership Perspective ”

Date: 7th November, 2025

Time: 7.00 pm-8.30 pm

Event Overview:

The ISTD Chennai Chapter hosted an insightful session titled “From Vision to Growth: A Leadership Perspective” led by the experienced Mr. Murali Vaidyanathan. His talk brought real-world insights on steering through tech explosions and shifting business landscapes, all while keeping people at the heart of leadership.

Event Highlights:

Mr. Vaidyanathan contrasted tech trends from 2015-2025 like digital payments, cloud computing, and ride-sharing with the next decade's disruptions, including advanced AI, Industry 4.0, IoT expansion, and autonomous vehicles.

- He outlined seven organizational pressures, such as volatile regulations, talent shortages, and rapid automation, affecting areas like HR, forecasting, and production.
- The core message delivered by him include “The pace of change is accelerating, and leaders must build flexibility into their strategies”.

Core Challenges:

He identified seven major impacts shaping organizations:

1. Volatile regulations
2. Shorter product life cycles
3. Rapid automation
4. Fewer blue-collar jobs
5. Scarcity of skilled talent
6. Population shifts
7. Continuous technology disruptions

These hit hard across functions like HR, design, and planning, pushing everyone to rethink how they operate.

People and India Focus:

Success hinges on spotting talent early, so he emphasized on certain focus areas especially considering the people of India

- Leaders must prioritize talent spotting, team cohesion, and genuine connections amid these changes.
- For India, opportunities like economic growth and digital expansion shine, but risks from global slowdowns, climate issues, and geopolitics loom large.

Attendees praised the practical frameworks, clear structure, and honest take on uncertainties. They loved the crisp delivery, hands-on tips, and straight talk on unknowns.

Leadership Evolution:

Mr. Vaidyanathan highlighted the shift from traditional leadership models to agile, externally oriented, people-centric leadership.

Key changes include:

Traditional way	Forward thinking way
Inside looking	Facing the whole world
Mass production	Innovation that sells
Fixed long paths	Goals that adapt
Lone expertise and boss people around	Act as a coach for the growth of people
Profit centric	Purpose driven

Key Takeaways:

- Tech evolves exponentially so build adaptive strategies.
- Shift to external, people-first leadership.
- Purpose and learning agility trump rigid experience.
- India's prospects are strong, but vigilance on risks is key.

Participant Feedback:

Attendees highlighted the clear delivery that made complex shifts like tech acceleration and agile leadership easy to follow. Many valued the real world applicability, noting how it prompted rethinking of long term planning in favor of flexible strategies. This enthusiasm underscores the session's success in blending forward thinking insights with relatable advice.

Conclusion:

The session was a resounding success, reaffirming ISTD Chennai's commitment to thought leadership and professional growth. Mr. Vaidyanathan's insights equipped participants with actionable frameworks to thrive in an era of rapid disruption while staying rooted in human-centric leadership.
