Date: 1st August 2025

Time: 9.00 am-3.00 pm

OBJECTIVES OF THE EVENT:

Presenting you: The Art of Self-Marketing (From Campus to Career: Building your interview skills)

ABOUT THE INAUGURAL EVENT:

The event was successfully inaugurated by Ms. S Rajalakshmi (Chairperson, ISTD Chennai chapter). The event brought together students, faculty, and guests to celebrate the launch of a platform dedicated to learning, leadership, and professional development. Highlights included inspiring addresses and the announcement of monthly programs planned for the year.

• Prayer Song:

“The event began on a truly uplifting note with a soul-stirring prayer song that filled the atmosphere with serenity and inspiration. The harmonious performance set a beautiful and energizing tone for the day, leaving everyone feeling hopeful and connected.”

• Welcome Address:

The Welcome Address was delivered by Dr. S. G. Bharathidasan, Professor of EEE and Student Chapter Coordinator, who extended a warm and heartfelt welcome to all participants and distinguished guests. With great enthusiasm, the speaker outlined the day’s exciting agenda and expressed sincere gratitude for everyone’s presence, setting an uplifting and energetic tone for the event right from the start.

• Annual Report Reading:

The Annual Report was presented with great pride by Mr. Sriram A, Final-year EEE student and President of the Student Chapter, offering an inspiring overview of the organization’s remarkable achievements, meaningful milestones, and the challenges overcome throughout the past year. It showed impressive statistics, celebrated significant successes, and outlined exciting avenues for future growth, providing a vibrant snapshot of the organization’s dynamic journey and continued progress. He has planned a series of engaging ISTD programs scheduled every month this year, ensuring consistent opportunities for learning, growth, and professional development

SESSION 1:Chief Guest Address:

The inaugural session began with a powerful address by Rajalakshmi Mam, a distinguished HR consultant and the chairperson of the ISTD Chennai Chapter. Her speech, which was both energetic and deeply personal, focused on her journey and the lessons she learned from past failures. She underscored the critical role of communication and advised students to thoroughly research companies and prepare diligently for their placements. Furthermore, she highlighted the significance of professional grooming during interviews. Rajalakshmi Mam concluded her talk by urging the audience to continuously update their skills and expressed her sincere desire to see them thrive in their future careers.

CPO Address:

Following her, the Chief Placement Officer, Prof. S. Muraleedharan, took the stage. He emphasized the necessity of acquiring "industry-ready" skills. His core message to students was to improve their technical skills, particularly in coding, and to spend more time gaining practical experience in laboratories. He also spoke about the power of independent decision-making and the crucial role of time management in securing placements.

Address of HOD:

The Head of the ECE Department, Dr.N. Kumarathan, then addressed the gathering. He reiterated the importance of skill enhancement, noting the current trend of employees being let go due to a lack of skills, the rise of AI, and the issue of moonlighting.

Introduction of Office Bearers:

Dr. S.G. Bharathi Dasan, sir, the ISTD coordinator, introduced the newly appointed office bearers for the year. Each office bearer was presented with a badge, and a group photograph with the chief guests was taken to commemorate the occasion.

Break: A short break followed, allowing participants to refresh, network, and discuss the insights gained from the morning sessions. Light refreshments were served during this time.

SESSION 2:

Guru Gokul , Assistant Placement Officer, delivered an engaging talk on “How to Prepare for the Interview”. He focused on the importance of developing core technical skills such as programming, cybersecurity, and data analysis, and recommended using platforms like LeetCode, GitHub, Coursera, and YouTube for continuous learning. He stressed the role of effective communication, personal branding through portfolios, and gaining real-world experience via internships. He advised students to regularly check emails and placement group updates to stay informed. To build the right mindset, he suggested reading books like “The Psychology of Money, The Power of Your Subconscious Mind, The Art of Laziness, and What Are You Doing With Your Life?” The session provided students with practical tips and clarity to approach interviews with confidence.

SESSION 3:

Dr. S.G. Bharathi Dasan, the ISTD Student Chapter coordinator led an insightful session focusing on interview readiness and the power of self-marketing. He emphasized the importance of personal branding and how effectively presenting oneself can make a significant impact during placement processes. The session was interactive, prompting students to reflect on their preparation strategies.

SESSION 4:Senior Experience Sharing Session:

The fourth session featured senior students (Yuvasri, Final Year EEE and Sanjay Kumnar, Final Year EEE) sharing their personal experiences related to campus placements. They discussed essential aspects like aptitude preparation, mock interviews, group discussions, and the importance of mastering at least one programming language to enhance job readiness. Their guidance was practical and encouraging for the attendees.

FEEDBACK:

A feedback session followed, where participants shared their thoughts and impressions about the event. Many attendees expressed appreciation for the relevance and usefulness of the sessions, particularly the real-life insights shared by seniors and the practical tips provided by the speakers. Students highlighted how the sessions gave them more clarity on placement expectations and helped boost their confidence.

VOTE OF THANKS:

The Vote of Thanks was delivered by expressing gratitude to all speakers, participants, and organizers. The closing remarks acknowledged the contributions of everyone involved and brought the event to a thoughtful conclusion.
