Session Insights :

The session commenced with a warm welcome by Thamizh Selvan, Pre-Final Year student of SVCE and ISTD Joint Secretary, who set the tone for the evening by emphasizing the importance of leading with clarity and intention.

Insights from Mr. Ananthaseshan Narayanan

Drawing from his extensive leadership journey, particularly during his tenure at Carborundum Universal Limited (CUMI), Mr. Narayanan spoke about how leadership evolves with changing organizational needs.

He reflected on the importance of:

- Self-awareness in leadership
- Embracing challenges as learning opportunities
- Staying anchored to one's purpose during periods of transformation

Through relatable anecdotes, he highlighted that leadership is not about authority alone but about continuously learning, adapting, and inspiring teams through authenticity.

Insights from Ms. Usha Subramaniam

Ms. Subramaniam offered a powerful perspective on values-based leadership. She emphasized that leadership extends beyond designation and hierarchy — it is deeply connected to responsibility, ethics, and people-centric thinking.

She underscored:

- The role of integrity in decision-making
- Building trust through consistent actions
- Aligning organizational goals with meaningful purpose

Her reflections illustrated how clarity of purpose enables leaders to navigate complexity while fostering long-term organizational success.

Insights from Mr. Vijay Venkatesh

Mr. Vijay Venkatesh, introduced by Sriram, Final Year student of SVCE and ISTD President, shared insights from a practitioner's lens.

He spoke about:

- Driving engagement through purpose-driven leadership
- Strengthening accountability within teams
- Aligning personal values with organizational objectives

His address reinforced the idea that when leaders communicate purpose clearly, teams perform with greater commitment and ownership.

Participant Experience:

The session was marked by active engagement and thoughtful interaction. Participants appreciated the openness with which the speakers shared their experiences — including challenges, turning points, and personal reflections.

The discussions encouraged members to:

- Reflect on their own leadership journeys
- Revisit the role of values in their professional decisions
- Consider how purpose influences team motivation and performance

The interactive environment made the session both insightful and relatable. Many attendees expressed that the learnings were not only inspiring but also immediately applicable in their professional contexts.

The informal networking segment further enhanced the experience, allowing members to connect, exchange perspectives, and build meaningful professional relationships in a relaxed setting.

Conclusion:

“The Inspiring Journey of Leading with Purpose” proved to be a thought-provoking and energizing session. The conversations extended beyond the stage, sparking reflection and dialogue among members.

The evening concluded with the ISTD Office Bearers honoring the guest speakers in appreciation of their valuable contributions. Mr. Ezhilarasan conveyed his gratitude and specially thanked the students of SVCE for effectively anchoring the session as Masters of Ceremony, ensuring a smooth and engaging flow throughout the program.

The formal vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Anu, ISTD Member. The session concluded at 8:40 PM with a group photograph, marking the close of a meaningful and memorable monthly meeting.
