Session Insights – Mr. P. Kaniappan, Head – Counselling & Assessment, Indian Foundation for Quality Management:

In his engaging and insightful session, Mr. P. Kaniappan highlighted the critical role of counselling, assessment, and culture in shaping the future workforce of Global Capability Centres (GCCs). He emphasized the following key points:

- Role of Culture: Culture acts as the “invisible engine” driving innovation, sustainability, and employee engagement within organizations.
- Reskilling & Upskilling: The importance of identifying skill gaps and developing training programs aligned with future GCC requirements.
- Leadership Development: Selecting leaders based on potential and future-readiness rather than solely on past experience ensures adaptability.
- Strategic Workforce Planning: Aligning talent strategies with evolving business needs to enable GCCs to transition from service providers to capability leaders.

Mr. Kaniappan also shared practical insights and examples of how cultural adaptability and strategic learning initiatives can empower employees and foster organizational growth.

Session Insights – Mr. Sudhakar Sethuraman, Partner, Deloitte India:

Mr. Sudhakar Sethuraman's session offered a strategic perspective on the evolution of GCCs and India's growing role in the global capability landscape. He emphasized the following key points:

- GCC Transformation: GCCs progress from support functions → tech enablement → digital process solutions → capability development.
- Emerging Opportunities: India hosts over 1,700 GCCs employing 2.6 million professionals, with 26 new hubs emerging beyond Tier-1 cities.
- Future Disruptors: Technologies like AI, IoT, digitalisation, analytics, and intelligent systems are reshaping business operations and talent requirements.
- Leadership for Innovation: The need for visionary leaders who can drive technology adoption, innovation, and continuous learning in a rapidly evolving environment.

He also illustrated his points with real-world examples, highlighting how GCCs in India are creating opportunities for skill development, innovation, and global impact.

Participant Experience:

The participants found the session highly engaging and insightful, appreciating the practical and strategic perspectives shared by the speakers. Members actively interacted during the discussions, asking questions and sharing their own experiences, which enriched the dialogue. The session helped attendees gain a deeper understanding of the evolving Global Capability Centre (GCC) landscape, the importance of reskilling and upskilling, and the role of culture and future-ready leadership. Networking over Hi-Tea and dinner provided a relaxed environment for professionals to connect, exchange ideas, and explore collaborative opportunities. Overall, participants left the event with actionable insights and inspiration to apply learnings within their own organizations and career journeys.

Conclusion:

The ISTD Chennai Chapter Monthly Meeting on “The Future of Work in GCCs: Reskilling, Culture and Leadership” was a resounding success. The session offered participants a comprehensive understanding of how Global Capability Centres are evolving and the opportunities this creates for India's workforce. Through the expert insights of Mr. P. Kaniappan and Mr. Sudhakar Sethuraman, attendees learned about the importance of reskilling, cultural adaptability, and visionary leadership in driving organizational growth and innovation. The event fostered meaningful discussions, networking, and knowledge sharing, leaving participants equipped with actionable strategies to navigate the changing GCC landscape and enhance their professional journeys.
